1919—31 Days

JANUARY

1 January WEDNESDAY 1-364

Commonwealth Day—Public Holiday

W. green was buying skips & also came out with a car with fruit
etc for Birmingham Bermuda.

Poor old Thompson
of N. S. W's died today making the second of our girls to go.

Really this is the most unhappy
New Years Day I've
ever spent in only hope it will not last for long.

Went on night duty
tonight

2 THURSDAY 2-363

Thompson buried today. Sheep would not let us go to her funeral. Very little Sleep today. Sleeping in tents is no fun on bright days. Feel so lonely & homesick

3 FRIDAY 3-362

Got a Case of winter
Album of photos, chocs & a letter & telegram
all at once from Billy.
He tried hard to get me on the phone
N Years Day but was not successful

Some of Shrine Boys
all improving. Sister Williams very ill.
Later.

Poor Williams
died during night in the third death we have had in this awful place among our staff. There are five out of the six Drs down with it & all
the domestic staff
as well.

5 SUNDAY 5-360

Another Sister very ill Ridgway from
S. Luis. Only one
clergy for four days & caught it.
Williams buried
today.

6 MONDAY 6-359

Ridgway died this evening. Such a
dear little girl.
